

TORRANCE WOMEN ARE DISTRICT HOSTESSES

Civic Auditorium was filled to capacity Monday evening when more than 400 members and guests from 37 of the 52 Junior Woman's clubs in the Los Angeles district attended a meeting presided over by Miss Virginia Tilley, district president. The Torrance Juniors were co-hostesses with the Manhattan Beach Dolphins and the Redondo Beach Dianhas.

After the introduction of club presidents, Mrs. Esther Parks, president of the Korean Woman's Club, spoke about the conditions in her native land and the problems the Korean women are facing in these critical times. She spoke highly of the progress of her fellow country women and mentioned that they could not buy and would appreciate being sent knitting and embroidery supplies, scissors, patterns, and quilting scraps.

Mrs. Dixie Strugist, personal-ogist, gave an inspiring talk on how to free oneself from worry, hate, and other mental noogouns which destroy peace of mind and mar one's personality.

The district philanthropy chairman reported on the district's choice of a joint philanthropy project for the year 1949-50. With 42 clubs voting, the project receiving the majority votes was purchase of a medium-sized iron lung to be donated to Los Angeles General Hospital. This gift will be selected by the district board and a memorial plaque will be affixed before its presentation to the hospital. A total of $2000 is contributed each year by the joint clubs for a project of this kind.

Mrs. Wayne Bentley, second vice president of the Los Angeles District reported on the Ashbin Snow tea given Saturday in the Crystal room of the Beverly Hills Hotel. It was a beautiful setting for the many lovely clothes displayed by charming models chosen from the Junior Woman's Clubs. A delicious tea was served.

Torrance women who attended this outstanding event were: Miss Ruth Mahon and her guest, Elizabeth Griffin and Mesdames H. P. Jensen, J. Parke Montague, Gerald Grubbs, W. O. Clausing, R. C. Morton, W. C. Boswell Jr., John Agapito Jr., R. C. Jones, C. H. Bennett and Mrs. S. V. Rauss, senior president, and Mrs. Dean L. Sears and Mrs. John Oursler, junior counselors.

The tea table for the conference was decorated to represent a football field with little goal posts at each end. The yard markers were tiny white mums and the field was surrounded by gum drops each holding a flag with a district club name on it. The center piece was a loving cup made of gold and brown mums. Individual pumpkin pies and tea and coffee were served.
